Location

The property is situated in a prime location on South Mall at its Eastern end, close to its junction with Parnell Place. South Mall is the heart of Cork's Central Business District and the eastern end of the street has seen significant new investment recently including Cork University Business School, opening of The Maldron Hotel and development of 85 South Mall with KPMG and Forcepoint as tenants. Further east larger Grade A offices are being developed at Navigation Square, Penrose Dock and Horgan's Quay.

Description

The property comprises a six storey purpose built office building offering five floors of modern open plan office space. Situated on the south side of South Mall at its most eastern end the property's end of terrace build gives the property great prominence. The property benefits from extensive glazing to three sides with scenic views over the city centre, docklands area and the River Lee and has excellent natural lighting. The ground floor is self-contained and occupied by Lisney with a secure glazed entrance foyer serving the upper floors via a passenger lift and stairs.

The office floors will be mainly open plan and finished to a landlord specification to include:

- o Suspended grid ceilings and tile ceiling systems
- o 600 x 600 mm carpet floor tile finish
- o Heating and cooling air conditioning system
- o Plastered and painted walls
- o Low energy LED lighting
- o New bathroom facilities
